FROM THE MAYOR'S DESK

Howdy Folks,

Greetings to one and all, The XVI Shaketail annual match has come and gone. I hope by now that you are all rested up and ready to get started on Shaketail XVII .just Kiddin, Although it won't be long that we will need to start thinking about it.

I must say that this year was the best weather that we have had in the last 6 years, it wasn't to hot nor was it to cold, except on the day's that we were setting up. But who said that a little bit of rain ever hurt anyone; it just made us happy to see the sun on Friday and Saturday.

I would like to thank all of the shooters for making the match a big success, With out the folks that come to shoot and have a good time the match would not be worth while, Thanks to all of you.

Where would we be with out all of the folks that have helped through out the year. Burgundy Ballou Came out in her slack time and painted the jail. Rick-A-D brought out his welder and did a bunch of welding on the targets and such, I even take some to his house so that he wouldn't feel left out. Slim and Deek have been working on props a good part of the year, Put a roof on the jail house Then Walker helped roof it, he really likes roofin. Sullivan Ballou, Single Shot Sullie, Quack Shot, Buckshot, fixed up a lotta things including loading tables and benches. Tana Blaze does all the Certificates and keeps things in order. Cyrus and Nellie, Callico and Ransom Payne fixin the food so we could eat, and the list goes on. Thanks to all of you from the bottom of my heart.

Great stages good folks to gab with and a lot of shootin what else could a cowboy or cowgirl ask for.

Thanks to ever one for the chance to be a part of a great bunch of folks.

Until next time may God bless all of you.

Keep your powder dry.

Yaro
