Mayor's Letter

May 2007

Howdy Folks,

It seems that we can't keep the die hard's from coming and shootin even when there is a chance that the mud will be knee deep. Fortunately it was only ankle deep for about the first couple of hours and by the end of the day it was almost dry.

Thanks to our good Pard Bloody Lane for taking a bunch of welding home and fixing targets in need of help. Just shows when we work together and jump in for the good of the shoot it will get done.

A big thanks to all that came and helped set up. A few good hands is all it takes. Now if I could keep the trucks from getting stuck it might help also. Thanks to Bill Scanlon for coming over in the morning and pulling out the flat bed after I stuck it real good.

There should be a Parade in Elizabeth the first of June I'll check with Kansas Kid and see if we are on for it, and let you know asap.

Remember the BLGC open house is the 9th of June so we will need some folks to help out at Shaketail City for the day. It does count for your work bond hours.

Several folks offered to write stages and turn them in to Walker or me and so far we have not received any. So if you have some please get them to us. Remember the annual is a team effort not just a one man deal. We all need to pitch in a bit.

Walker e-mail is wkeeney@earthlink.net , mine is mayoryaro@msn.com.

So keep your powder dry
God Bless all of you

Yaro
