Volume 18 Issue 10

October 2007

FROM THE MAYOR'S DESK

Howdy Folks,

Those of you that thought the weather was too bad to shoot missed a real good day for this time of the year. It was just a bit on the chilly side to start with but not bad. Then the sun came out for a while and warmed things up for a bit. Not much wind, I guess that it blew it's self out on Saturday. Thank God.

The town council held a meeting last month regarding the annual and other things that need to take place.

The town council is considering placing a 4 shot minimum to participate in the annual, as this is not a state match but a Shaketail Annual for the Shaketails. They are also considering a guest category so as to not shut anyone out.

We are having a workday this Sat. and Sun. to move our equipment from the barn as BLGC is in the process of preparing to build a new storage shed for the club disciplines and other needs of the club. We are also going to start siding the existing clubhouse to improve the appearance and help with preserving the structure as should have been done with the old barn when we had a chance. Now it is structurally unsafe and will need to be torn down. That will be a sad day.

Only 2 more shoots before the New Year, My how time flies when you are having fun.

See you at the next shoot.

God Bless

Yaro
