FROM THE MAYOR'S DESK

Howdy Folks,

As you can tell I'm letting Silverton do the talking for me this month just so that I don't have to strain my brain. By the way we all had a clean match!!!

always bring something. I remembered it because at every Pikes Peak Firearms Coalition meeting they pass the hat for "small donations". In the course of a year they collect quite a bit of cash for operating expenses this way.

Silverton

By my count there were 10 frozen fools at the ranch Sunday: you, me, K-K, John Henry, Shootin Hoosier, Gardner Kid, Bloody Lane, Lead Friend, Josh no alias,—he brought the Mexican casserole and Midnite Slim. In case you want to mention them in the RT, you don't have try to remember them.

There used to be a donation can at the monthly shoots for those who wanted to support the pot luck. I thought it was a good idea for people like me who don't

Our new targets are in the process of being cut as we speak.

Just to remind everyone that it is that time of the year that BLGC is having our annual elections for new officers. Also for those that are BLGC members our renewals will be coming due in May, so plan ahead please.

There will be a Town Council and Shaketail meeting on the 16th of March to start planning

I for this year and to get started on the annual. Those of you that were at the last meeting will remember that we had some changes in mind on how we were going to do things so please plan to attend.

There has been some damage to the roof on the Bank and Merc buildings. I would like someone to step up and put the tin back on.

One other thing if you have any work bond related to the club please contact me so that I may turn it into Art before he sends out the renewals.

That's all for now, see you at the April shoot.

God Bless

Yaro
