NOTES FROM THE RANGE

As Lilly Von Stuppe would Say "It's Twooo, It's Twooo, the Colorado Shaketails had a gweat time at Shaketail XX". The match was a big success and a lot of fun for all those in attendance.

With stages based (loosely) on "Blazing Saddles" you were able to deliver the Candy gram to Mongo with a good dose of lead on the side. Maybe you just needed some more beans Mr. Taggart. But you'd do it for Randolph Scott. Any way you saw it, the stages were set up for fun and challenges. Based on the feedback I received everyone had a great time.

Daily meals were expertly prepared by our own Shootin Miss who stepped up at the last minute and did a great job. Thanks to her, we all got plenty of good grub.

The sponsors this year helped make the match a success, providing door prizes and helping pay for the match. They are listed later in this paper.

We had the pleasure of having Hondo SASS 21 at the match this year. He hasn't been to a Shaketail match since Shaketail 5 but said that he already plans to return for next years match. We all look forward to seeing him there and maybe he can drag Tex SASS 4 back out as well.

I want to congratulate all the winners in all the categories represented as well as the side matches. They are listed throughout this paper as well as overall results. Top Shaketail this year went to the Kiowa Kid SASS 69870, but I think everyone was a winner that participated and I hope you all come back next year for Shaketail XXI.

It has been an honor and pleasure to be your match director for the past year and I hope the Shaketails will continue to grow and thrive.

Workday Success

I want to thank everyone that pitched in to help with our BLGC workday. Thanks go to Silverton for organizing the work party and getting the supplies and to Bloody Lane, Dirty Polecat, Haywire Snuffy, John Henry, Midnite Slim and Okotoks. I am going by memory of who I saw so hopefully I didn't leave anyone out. We got a coat of paint on much of Shaketail City, the tables and gun racks as well as made some much needed repairs.
