July 2009

NOTES FROM THE RANGE

Midnite Slim is sittin' in for Walker this month.

It was a beautiful day to shoot a match and mother nature provided a nice southern theme for us having gumbo on all the berms. Despite that we had a really good shoot. A mini cannonball to prepare for the Annual and good warm weather to dry things out. The shooters were hot and most helpful this month shooting several clean stages and then helping to get all the targets loaded before the rain came again so the truck and trailer weren't a permanent part of the jailhouse. We had a new shooter join us this month, Wolftracks all the way from Illinois. And we were blessed to have John Henry back with us, cantankerous as always but nice to see him feeling better. Several regulars were off shooting Hell on Wheels and I'm sure they'll be back for the annual. If you haven't signed up for the annual it's coming on quick so don't delay, get your entries in soon. Walker is working to get stages done and he is planning an annual theme around "Blazing Saddles", Mongo is coming to town. All shooter and especially Shaketail members are urged to come out and help set up on Thursday before the match. It Will be a good time for all. Also we will be having a work day on the 18th of July to paint and prep the loading benches, jailhouse and Shaketail City for the annual. We can always use more help and we would appreciate all we can get. Everyone pulled together this month and I would really like to see that continue on every month. So until we meet again on the range, good shooting and don't sit on your spurs.

Midnite Slim

Don't forget the first annual Shaketails elections. Your nominations should be sent in to me by the 15th of July. Ballots will be mailed out on the 16th of July to all members of the Shaketails and must be postmarked by Aug 3rd. The posts up for election are President, Secretary, At large position, and Territorial Governor. If you want to run for one of those posts or nominate someone, please send your nominations. Any Shaketails member can run for office.
