June 2009

NOTES FROM THE RANGE

I love the smell of gunpowder in the air. And that is what we had again this month. 30 shooters showed up for a great day of shooting. I hope everyone had a good time. It was good to see some old friends back shooting with us. The stages were pretty quick and yet challenging enough to make the shooter think. (There were some P's out there) Congratulations to all the winners of their categories as well as the Kiowa Kid for overall winner.

Next month, bring a few extra shotgun shells because we will be doing a Mini Cannonball to warm you up for the Annual. (Don't worry, the stage will only have 12 shotgun targets)

John Henry is out of action for a while and we all missed him on the firing line this past match. I personally wish him a speedy recovery and look forward to having him back in the game soon.

With the annual just around the bend we have a lot on our plates this time of year. We have a lot of painting that should be done, Sponsors need to be contacted, and most of all shooters need to sign up. You can find the registration form in this newsletter or on the Shaketails web page. You can also find the Sponsor form there. We are trying to keep prices the same as last year for the main match. We have to put a small charge on for side matches to offset the increased charge that BLGC has. $5 will allow you to shoot all the side matches this year except the Cowboy Trap. That will be separate. Any questions about the annual can be sent to me via e-mail. Entry forms can be dropped off at the match or mailed to the address on the form.

Another thing we have going is the BLGC Open House this weekend. Anyone wanting to help with this please show up at Shaketail City around 8:00 on Sat. This is work bond hours for your BLGC membership.

Finally, don't forget the first annual Shaketails elections. Your nominations should be sent in to me by the 15th of July. I goofed last week and said June. Ballots will be mailed out on the 16th of July to all members of the Shaketails and must be postmarked by Aug 3rd. The posts up for election are President, Secretary, At large position, and Territorial Governor. If you want to run for one of those posts or nominate someone, please send your nominations. Any Shaketails member can run for office.

Thanks to all the Shaketails for all your support this past year. I know it has been a rollercoaster ride but I think we are finally pointed the right direction for the future success of the Colorado Shaketails.
