November 2009

NOTES FROM THE RANGE

Well you of us average shooters a bit of a could not have chance. Congratulations on your win. asked for a better Thanks have to go out as always to day to shoot. The those who helped set up. Bloody Lane sky was blue, and Dirty Pole Cat were both there temperatures and sloggin' thru the mud right warm and NO WIND. Just enough breeze to move the black powder helped load up, my trick for everyone smoke along. Now some may cuss the mud (I did several times) but it was a most pleasant day for shooting in Colorado. The turn out was fair and we met a couple of new shooters. Speaking of which Shootin' Miss Thanks to Knot Hardly Dunn and Shamrock Sadie for stoppin' by. We would like to have a chili cook off. hope you have a safe trip back to Georgia, it was a pleasure. Also new With chili and cornbread entries. I to us Painted Filly and back again will keep everyone up to date on Shootin' Miss. It's nice to see a few that, so start workin' on your special more ladies a shootin' with us, kinda recipe. makes up for havin' to look at Yaro I can't think of but one bad so much. A good bunch of shooters to be sure. thing about today and that is it had to end and we all had to part company until next month. So until then keep your powder dry and a fair wind to your back as you travel where ever you're goin'..

The match moved along at a good pace and there was fun being had by all. Next pot match, Kiowa has to wear an extra 10 pounds of lead to slow him down and give some

Welcome New Shaketails VP

Lostriver Bill has volunteered to assume the vacant VP position. The Board officially approved him to join in a quick meeting after the shoot Sunday. Please join in welcoming him aboard and thanking Lostriver Bill for stepping up and lending a hand.

Shaketail XX Posse Pictures

At the membership meeting held in October, it was suggested that we sell the full resolution posse pictures for $5 for each file. Please let me know if you are interested.

SASS Convention

I'll miss the December shoot to attend the SASS Convention and the Territorial Governors Summit. If you have input on the agenda items, let me know.
