November 2010

NOTES FROM THE RANGE

What a great day to shoot Cowboy Action. The weather could not have more perfect. We were truly blessed. Warm weather a slight breeze and good folks out making steel ring, who could ask for a better November day. We shot 4 stages that were quick and simple yet had some challenge to them. All in all just a good day.

The meeting started out with a reminder of the Shaketail meeting on Nov. 13. Don't forget and come on out so we can start working toward next years annual. Next order of business was a reminder to get your membership dues in. Also we found out that Bloody Lane's wife had to have major surgery and was coming home over the weekend. There was a card there for all to sign and we thank everyone that did so. Let's keep them in our thoughts and prayers that she has a safe and speedy recovery. We do miss Lane when he's not there, he is a true blessing to the club.

Then it was off to the range to ring some steel. Looking at the scoresheets there was some pretty good shooting, with Starshot nearly having a clean match. There were several other that had clean stages so maybe I'm getting too easy on my stages. Nah, until I clean a match they'll be pretty much the same. Then we'll have to go smaller and further away. Not much chance of that happening 'cuase I barely hit the berm most days. Maybe I need a vacation being that I don't believe in practice.

Ok then it's decided, Snuffy and I won't be there in Dec., as we are going to Las Vegas for a belated honeymoon and a trip to the National Finals Rodeo. And with us being gone we need some people to step up and help setup on Dec.4. Shootin Hoosier will be leading that and details will be looked at at the meeting.

As always I have to thank those that help setup before hand (Haywire Snuffy & Dirty Pole Cat) and everyone that stays after to get every thing picked up. Thanks all, it makes my job a bit easier. So it's time to close out and get ready for the work week. In closing I'd like to ask that everyone keep Lane and his family in mind hope that all goes well for them. And let's not forget Shootin' Hoosier who is going through his own heath issues right now. Say prayer for them and include our military folks that help us to enjoy this free and wonderful country.

Until we meet on the range again; Keep your powder dry and Don't squat with your spurs on.

TG's Corner

I just wanted to remind everyone again that the SASS Convention and Territorial Governor's Summit is coming up December 9-12. Those on the Shaketails Members email distribution list should have gotten a summary of the Territorial Governor's Summit agenda items from me for comments on the four questions being voted on. Please email me your comments or bring them to the members meeting this Saturday at the Black Forest Fire Station One.

For those that are Ben Lomond Gun Club members, you should have received your membership renewal form in the mail a couple of weeks ago. Don't forget to send it in and include your NRA membership information.
