April 2013

NOTES FROM THE RANGE

Howdy all, April was as good to us as every other month has been so far. You could not have asked for better weather. Warm enough you didn't need a coat and cool enough you didn't need to find shade. We moved into our Spring shoot schedule with 5 stages on Sunday and will keep up with that until fall. We had a good turn out with several new shooters joining in and more folks showing interest in coming back to shoot. We are moving forward and building up a good group of shooters. If you know someone that wants to give it try bringing them out and introducing them to Cowboy Shooting.

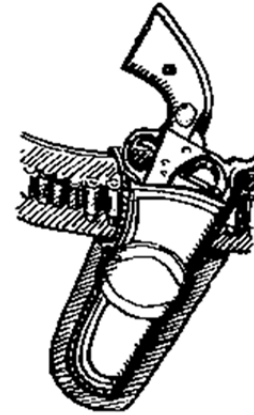

The May shoot will be kicked off with a demonstration shoot at Rocky Mountain Roosters. They are hosting this to get kids and parents interested in shooting and we will be there to gather interest in Cowboy Shooting. Several of us are going there to shoot and talk to the kids and their families to help support the shooting sports and maybe get some new shooters to come out and shoot with us. That will take place Saturday May 4. If you are interested contact Shootin' Hoosier for information. Sunday May 5 will be our regular shoot, so come out and join the fun. I am hoping that the weather will stay good for us.

As always we are looking ahead to the Annual and making preparations for that. And we are looking at getting some work done at the range. We will be having a work day on the 20th of April to try putting some skirting around the trailer. If you would like to help give me or Hoosier a call and we will give you the details.

Time to end this for now and get ready for the day ahead, so until we meet on the range again; Keep your powder dry and good shooting.

TG's Corner

It took me a couple of weeks to finally get around to trying to clean the 500 lbs. of mud off my truck from the shoot last month. The poor guy that got in line behind me at the car wash was starting to get pretty impatient as I kept feeding a seemingly endless stream of quarters into the machine. Thankfully we did not have to contend with that problem this month. It was just a great day to finally get to shoot after having my guns in the safe for three months per doctor's orders to not lift much of anything. After that much time ya get a little rusty but it was coming back by the end of the shoot.

Midnite Slim already gave a plug for the M.U.L.E.Y. Kids' Day Shoot event on Saturday May 4th at the Rocky Mountain Roosters facilities. I just want to add if you know of a kid 5-17 years old that would like to participate, let me know. I'll pass along the registration form. It is a great time for kids and parents.
